

Happy New Year and welcome 2026! The cellar is mostly quiet, the vines are going to sleep after our first frost, and we're soaking up winter (and lots of rain) in Napa the best way we know how... with good wine, warm fires, and exciting plans for the year ahead. A new year brings plenty to look forward to, and we're so happy to start it with you!

Vineyard & Winery Work

Vineyard & Winery News... Winter is here and so is the rain! We had our first frost about a week ago and the vineyard is sleeping. We'll begin pruning as soon as the rain passes through the valley. The reservoir is already full and the vineyard will enjoy a good soak!

Team News... Juan has been busy topping wines in the cellar and Raymond just returned from vacation and continues to work hard in the vineyard. There's always so much to do - the guys continue to maintain the equipment, keep everything clean and keep the cave in near perfect condition for both the wines and the visitors. Sarah is working on finalizing Winter Club details and planning the next few months of Pop-Up events, while Todd is simply trying to stay out of trouble for now!

Notes from Sarah & Todd

Sarah & Todd... December was a whirlwind of events, travel, and treasured family time—so many wonderful moments to share. Jordan and Harriet enjoyed their first trip to Las Vegas as a married couple, and Noah and Julia joined us there as well for the closing ACVV Pop-Up Party weekend. Having everyone together was such a joy, and we were grateful for all their help and energy.

Just before Christmas, George (Sarah's Dad) celebrated his 86th birthday, and soon after, most of us reunited again for the holidays. Harriet and Jordan spent Christmas with her family in Harbor Springs, Michigan with lots of snow, while back in Napa, George and Todd stayed busy with an impressive sixty games of pool! Our days were filled with some favorite home-cooked meals and Noah made butter for the first time; we all enjoyed plenty of laughter, liars dice and holiday movies, and exceptional coffee and hot chocolate crafted by our in-house barista, Noah... so much fun!

Everything feels much quieter now that everyone has headed home and back to school, but we're still smiling from all the special time spent together.

Sarah and Todd welcomed the New Year with a quiet dinner at Cole's Chop House, savoring great conversation and reflecting on all that lies ahead in the new year—Winter Club releases, exciting new wines, and a year filled with fun, friendship, family, travel, and memorable experiences to share together. Todd was asleep by 10:30pm... lol!
