Vineyard & Winery Work

Vineyard & Winery News... Bottling went well and the wines are settling down. Now, we are waiting on Mother Nature! The vineyard continues to look bountiful and healthy... the sugars are coming up and physiological ripeness is coming. There's still no way to know exactly when the estate fruit will be ready, but we are on our way with Chardonnay, Syrah, Cabernet Franc, and Zinfandel coming in later this week. Seems like we are still a few weeks away for our estate Petit Verdot, Merlot and Cabernet. The warm weather coming should be very helpful!

Team News... The guys are enjoying a slow start to harvest and are really busy keeping everything going in the right direction... and knowing harvest could be quite intense like last year, when everything came in in just a few short weeks! Richard is no longer with us, however we wish him well and he will be missed. Todd's son Michael is assisting Todd with harvest in the meantime, so we are grateful everything is going along very smoothly. Fall Club was a wonderful success; most orders will be shipping on October 13th as scheduled, and we are looking forward to the annual Fall Club BBQ next weekend!

Notes from Sarah & Todd

Sarah & Todd... We couldn't be more thankful! We finished August with bottling some beautiful new wines and new vintages, some will be making it to Club Members as soon as the October Fall Club Shipment (and are already SOLD OUT!). Bottling at the end of August went well, and the following week, we flew to Winter Park, Colorado to join our kids for a dear family friend's wedding; Jeremy and Megan are college friends of Jordan's (pictured in the middle) and what a beautiful celebration and fun weekend they hosted! Jeremy's mom and her petit sister were enamored with all seven feet of Noah...lol! Jeremy came to Napa when we had the fires, and helped Todd and Jordan during a difficult harvest. We're so excited for this new chapter in their lives, and feel blessed to be part of their extended family. We returned to Napa and immediately brought in Chardonnay, followed by Syrah, and most recently, the estate Cabernet Franc, hand-picked by Todd and our team. Otherwise, we have been incredibly busy with hosting members and new friends in lots of tastings, private winery luncheons and events for Members and planning what's next!

Todd is anxiously awaiting harvest, checking sugars regularly and happy that the vineyard is looking wonderful and bountiful. We have a few new ideas for new wines and a new Club... so lots of news to come! We are thrilled to be nominated for the Napa Valley 2026 Best of Awards in three categories and hope you'll all VOTE and do so often over the next eight weeks. We love what we do and hope our passion translates into everything we have to offer, from crafting world class wines to giving all of you the best experiences possible, whether on the phone, in person or on Todd's Friday Fun Virtual Tastings. Thank you all so much for your friendship, support and love of our wines!

Cheers to all of you and a bountiful harvest!

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month & HALLOWEEN...

October brings us two reminders—one heartfelt and one playful.

This month, we pause to honor Breast Cancer Awareness Month, standing in support of survivors, loved ones, and the ongoing fight for a cure. It's a cause close to so many of us, and we raise our glass to strength, hope, and resilience.

Of course, October also brings the lighter spirit of Halloween—a time for costumes, treats, and maybe even a little mischief. Whether you're toasting to courage or carving pumpkins, we hope a favorite bottle of Anderson's Conn Valley finds its way into your October celebrations.

Here's to awareness, hope, and a bit of spooky fun!

From our family to yours...

Cheers and blessings,

Todd, Sarah, Juan and Raymond
