Anderson's Conn Valley Cabernet Sauvignon "Signature" 2015

95 Jeb Dunnuck, Dec. 29. 2017 –

“Lastly, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Signature is based all on Cabernet Sauvignon that spent 20 months in 65% new French oak. It's a classic wine that's packed with notions of blackcurrants, scorched earth, tobacco leaf and roasted herbs. Rich, full-bodied and concentrated, it has the most mid-palate depth of the trio, possessing building tannin, and a great finish. Another terrific wine from this estate, it has two to three decades of longevity ahead of it.”

95 The Wine Enthusiast, June. 2018 –

“With less than 6% Petit Verdot, this epic wine is made from the producer's best barrels and is seductive in wild vanilla, red currant and plum. Expansive and succulent on the palate, the oak is well-integrated and supportive, imparting complex notes of cigar box and clove on the lengthy, spicy finish. Enjoy best 2025–2035”

94+ The Wine Advocate, Dec. 29. 2017

Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Signature has a nose of baked blackberries, black cherries and earthy notions with hints of underbrush, bay leaves and meat. Full-bodied and full-on savory in the mouth, it has chewy tannins and a meaty/peppery finish.”
