

Anderson's Conn Valley Vineyards Sauvignon Blanc 2018

Reviews for the 2017

91 The Wine Advocate, 29 Oct 2018 –

“Composed of 90% Sauvignon Blanc and 10% Semillon, the 2017 Sauvignon Blanc offers notes of baked apples and warm pears with wafts of honeyed lemons and fresh hay. Full-bodied with a pleasantly oily texture, the palate contributes some spicy sparks to the citrus layers and it finishes savory.”

90 The Wine Enthusiast, Nov 2018 –

“With 10% Semillon, the white aged in neutral barrels, this is a rich, interwoven wine with spicy acidity and bold tropical flavors at its core. A dash or two of ginger and white pepper memorably finishes things out.”

90 The Wine Spectator, Nov 30 2018 –

“This white shows plenty of complexity and detail. Smoky overtones weave in and out among the pear, lemon curd and melon flavors, with floral accents and a touch of grapefruit zest on the finish. Drink now.”
